Civil List Act 1697

The Civil List Act 1697 was an Act of the Parliament of England (9 Will. 3. c. 23).^[1] This was the first Act of Parliament to set the Civil List, although the custom had begun in 1689.^[2] The annual amount assigned to King William III and his household was £700,000, an amount that did not change until the beginning of the reign of George III in 1760.^[3]
